

Our Volunteers

BCT hosts volunteers from India and around the world who come to work with and learn from our activities.

This year we had seven international volunteers at Bhorugram. They were actively involved in our developmental activities relating to health, education, drinking water, natural resource management, games and sports etc. They undertook surveys and case studies relating to these activities.

Ms. Muqing Zhou, from the University of Ottawa, Canada - Pursuing honors degree in Political Science and having various experiences including Research Analyst at Department of Foreign Affairs and International Affairs, Parliamentary Guide at Parliament of Canada. She had been with us from 11/5/09 to 14/8/09. She was interested in education programs and was involved in non-formal education programs - Mahila Shikshan Vihar (MSV) project.

Mr. Stephen S. Hamza from the University of Western Ontario, London-Pursuing honors degree in Economics. His career objective is to play an active role in improving the lives of deprived communities through community development, social bonds and communication. He had been with us from 15/6/09 to 01/10/09 and involved in Rainwater Harvesting Project & documentation of interventions at the field level.

Mr. Nathan Tighe from the University of Cincinnati. He is a professional musician in Rochester, New York, Boston and Cincinnati. He was interested in Health programs, especially Tuberculosis control program. He was committed to T.B. Control Program and took pains to conduct surveys and analysis at individual level.

Ms. Aditi Shastri from California, USA was with us from July to August, 2009. She worked in C B Hospital and assisted Mr. Nathan Tighe in the study of Tuberculosis. She was also involved in the Mahila Shikshan Vihar relating to the literacy program of the adolescent girls.

We had three interns, Ms. Carol Barbara Ernst, Ms. Maria Katharina Schwarz and Mr. Thibault Peter Hutzli from the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland. They had been with us from 13/7/09 to 20/8/09.

Ms. Carol Barbara, a degree holder in international affairs interested in microfinance and livelihood enhancement because it focuses on helping people to help themselves which she finds a sensitive approach.

Ms. Maria Katharina Schwarz, a bachelor degree in economics, worked as an analyst at Private Funds Investments Group, London. She found it to be a great opportunity to get to know one of the world's largest countries, its language, its culture and its people. She was involved with us in different field of activities ranging from health and education to microfinance and drinking water supply.

Mr. Thibault Peter Hutzli was interested in education and sports. He was involved with us in sports activities of BRJD Public School, Bhorugram and helped the students in extra-curricular activities.
